42 ON TRIAL IN CUBA

2 Death Penalties Asked—
Plotting Is Charged

HAVANA, Sept. 28 (AP)—

The Cuban Government put forty-two more persons on trial today on charges of acting against the regime of Fidel Castro. Death penalties were asked for two defendants.

At Santiago, twenty-five defendants were accused of plotting an armed uprising during the unsuccessful rebel invasion of Cuba last April. The prosecution demanded the death penalty for Antonio Vazquez Gomez and prison sentences for the others.

At another trial in Pinar Del Rio, seventeen persons were charged with activities against the state. The Government called Ernesto Perez Morales an agent of the United States Central Intelligence Agency and demanded his execution. Thirty-year terms were asked for the others.
